Elves' Craft Workshop

Join the Wood River Library and Wood River Parks & Recreation in creating Christmas ornaments. All materials are provided. No registration or costs. This is designed for children 4-12 years.

December 2 from 10:00-12:00.

Giving Christmas Tree

Stop by and help give back to the community. We will have a tree with ornaments noting items needed for animals at Hope Rescues and the residents at Integrity Health Care. Please return gifts with tag to the Library before December 21. The staff will be delivering items on December 22.

Breakfast with Santa

Visit us on Saturday, December 9 for Breakfast with Santa at the Round House. Stop by and get a book (1 per family) and an activity book.

Bad Art Night for Adults

Join us for a night of terrible arts and crafts. Create the artwork of your wildest nightmare using our construction paper scraps, pieces of string, lint, beads, and whatever else we find lying around. At the conclusion of the event we will vote on who is the most bad at art. Remember that badder is better and only the most mediocre will be crowned victorious.

Young Adults After Hours

Kids 6th-12th grade can join us after the doors are locked and enjoy a movie, food, and activities. December 15 From 5:00-6:30.

American Red Cross Blood Drive

December 27 From 2:00-6:00 donate blood at the library. Register online at redcrossblood.org using sponsor code: WoodRiverLib.

Family Lego Build Day

Lego building for the entire family! You bring the ideas and we supply the Legos. Saturday, December 16 From 1:00-4:00.
