

COMPUTER AND INTERNET USE POLICY

By using a Wood River Public Library public access computer, or wireless connection, you agree to comply with all applicable municipal, Illinois, and Federal laws, as well as all library policies. The Library reserves the right to limit, refuse, and/or ban any patron from using the library computers. The Wood River Public Library's Internet Use Policy is part of the library's overall policy structure and should be interpreted in conjunction with other existing policies.

Wood River Public Library does use filtering software on all computers; however parents and guardians have the ultimate responsibility to supervise and guide the use of the Internet by their children.

The Wood River Public Library provides filtered/unsecured wireless access network for users with wireless electronic devices. Wireless connection is only available during regular library hours. Use of the Wood River Public Library wireless network is entirely at the risk of the user. The library assumes no responsibility for the safety of equipment or device configurations, security, or data files resulting from connection to the library's wireless network or the Internet, or liability for any consequent damage to hardware, software or data.

If a user experiences problems connecting to a wireless access point, staff will verify that the library's wireless access network is operational, but staff are not trained to configure or troubleshoot wireless electronic devices.
