Girls who CODE

Did you know fewer than 1 in 5 computer science graduates are women? Girls Who Code is an opportunity for girls to deepen their computer science skills as well as their confidence through computer science!

Girls Who Code will be a FREE 5 week session for girls 3rd-12th grade. Registration is required.

For more information please contact Technology Manager Scott!

Meets Saturdays starting March 16. (3rd-5th grade at 10:00; 6th-12th grade at 11:00)

Tales 2 Tails

Every month Patience the Comfort Dog is at the library for new, struggling, and reluctant readers to read to her. She lives up to her name as she sits quietly and listens contently to those K-12th grade read. This is a great opportunity for your child to find his/her confidence! There is no registration required.

Join us on March 12 from 3:00-4:00!

-DETAILS TO COME-

Date Night Paint Night

The Library hosted 10 couples at a paint night in February at the Pump House Bar and Grill. Each couple also got to enjoy chocolate covered strawberries and a glass of champagne, courtesy of the Pump House. We look forward to hosting another painting party on the patio!
